

Part-time Friend Partly Cloudy

DEAR ABBY: I am 56 years old, am married, but have been separated from my husband for 12 years now.

I have had a bachelor boy friend for 6 years. He's about 50, is wonderful company, but he's not the marrying type.

He does seasonal work in this area from May until November, then he takes off for the west, and I don't see him again until the next May.

He lives 30 miles from here, and drives in every night to read the newspaper and watch TV with me. He doesn't dance or bowl, or like to go anywhere, but he does have a nice car and plenty of money.

I am not getting any younger, Abby. I wrote to you about this problem 3 years ago, but I don't recall ever seeing your answer in the newspaper. I need advice. Will you please predict what kind of future you foresee for me?

RESTLESS IN N.Y.

DEAR RESTLESS: You have a part-time "boy friend" (if you can call a man who parks at your place to read the newspaper and watch TV a "boy friend"). And what good is his nice car and money if you don't go any place?

You say he isn't the marrying type. If he were, you already have one husband, which is all the law allows. "Prediction:" Continued mild, followed by cool winds from the west. No change.

DEAR ABBY: My husband (I'll call him Pete) and I are in our mid-twenties, have been married three years, and have a 2-year-old son.

Pete has always had a hot temper. Well last week we had an argument which got a little out of hand, and Pete hit me and knocked me down. The baby was in the same room and saw everything.

My problem is now the baby won't have anything to do with his father. When Pete comes near him, the baby turns his head away and cries. If Pete tries to touch him, he screams and draws away. This hurts Pete something terrible. I keep telling him that the baby will forget, and get over it in time, but will he?

PETE'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: The baby may, in time, become more "forgiving"—but don't count on him to forget. In the meantime, unless you enjoy being knocked down, I advise you to persuade Pete to get some professional help in learning how to control his temper.

DEAR ABBY: This is for "no name, Ohio" whose brother-in-law worked in the postal service and seemed to have a lot of "free samples" of soap, toothpaste, etc., as well as magazines with the addresses cut off.

My husband also works for the postal department, and we don't get any "free anything" because of it. All undeliverable samples and magazines are distributed to the local hospitals, mental institutions, and training centers.

You will find a few bad apples in every barrel, but on the whole, the men in our postal department are a bunch of honest, hard-working loyal guys who aren't appreciated nearly enough.

WALSTONBURG, N.C.

DEAR WALSTONBURG: To which I would like to add, "AMEN."

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WAITING FOR THE LAST LAUGH." How sad that you would consider another's humiliation a good reason to enjoy a laugh. Would you believe Goethe, who said: "By nothing do men show their character more than by the things they laugh at."

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

HATE TO WRITE LETTERS? SEND $1 TO ABBY, BOX 69700, LOS ANGELES, CAL. 90069, FOR ABBY'S BOOKLET "HOW TO WRITE LETTERS FOR ALL OCCASIONS."

DUNDEE BRIEFS

Floyd Kline left Sunday with a group of Gooch Feed dealers from this area for Lincoln, Neb., and Salina, Kan. They will spend several days visiting research farms.

Commencement For Starmont Students Tuesday

ARLINGTON (Special) — The 1968 Commencement for the Starmont Seniors will be held Tuesday, May 28th, 8 p.m. at the Senior High gymnasium.

A band prelude will be played by the Senior High School Band under the direction of Everett Blobaum.

The Invocation and Benediction will be given by Pastor Ralph Marquardt who serves the Lamont and Dundee Lutheran churches.

Edmund Groomes, Menlo, is the Commencement Speaker. The presentation of awards will be made by Kenneth Jensen, Senior High School principal, who following the presentation, will introduce Elton Knickerbocker, president of the Board who will present diplomas. Tokens of appreciation in honor will be given by Paul Hahn, president of the class.

The class motto is "So Little Done, So Much To Do".

Maynard Citizens Find Temporary Living Quarters

MAYNARD (Special) — Some Maynard residents whose homes were razed or damaged beyond repair in the tornado of May 15 have found temporary homes elsewhere.

They include Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warnke in the George Carley house; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pliester in the south apartment over the funeral home; Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Ingels in the residence of Mrs. Nellie Maynard-Roe; Pastor and Mrs. Arnold Thalacker in the James Galer residence.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Leo Anderson in what was the former telephone office; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Bender in the Methodist parsonage; Mrs. Opal Sargent with her brother, Art Wittenberg; Mr. and Mrs. John McKoon in a new trailer; and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wood moved to the farm house one mile north of town. Several others are staying with relatives or friends.

AURORA BRIEFS

American Legion Auxiliary donated food to the Red Cross in Oelwein. It was taken to the Sacred Heart Catholic church by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kortenkamp.

Mrs. Raymond Meyer of Chicago visited in the home of Mrs. Lucy Knapp Sunday. Mrs. Meyer is the former Eula Parker a former resident of Aurora.

LAMONT BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. George Ekstrom of Columbia, Mo., former residents of Lamont, visited in the home of Mrs. Evelyn Kreussel and other relatives in the vicinity. Mrs. Ekstrom was a school teacher here several years ago.

The Past Matrons had a 12:30 luncheon and meeting Tuesday, May 21 at the home of Mrs. Elmer Smith. Mrs. Evelyn Kreussel and Mrs. Elmer Smith received birthday gifts from their secret pals. A social afternoon was enjoyed.

Some of the Lamont churches took up collections at Sunday services for the tornado victims Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Crabb, Minot, N.D., daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R.C. Stewart, are the parents of a son born May 21.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paulson of Two Harbors, Minn. visited in the Fred Green home this past week. A relative dinner in their honor was held Sunday. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. James Green and daughters, Waterloo; Mr. and Mrs. Larry Green and sons, Jesup; Dale Green, Cedar Rapids; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green and family.

Harry Hall, 64, Charles City was killed in Charles City tornado. He is a cousin of Kenneth Hall and brother-in-law of Mrs. Cecile Dyball. Funeral was Tuesday, May 21 at the Methodist church, Charles City. He is survived by his widow, one daughter and two sons.

Putnam Fore-Most 4-H will meet at Dean Burrington's home on June 10 at 8:00 p.m.

This week at the library, there is a new display of books calculated to please all the feminine readers. Displayed under the theme, "It's a Woman's World," are such books as "How to Dress for Success" by Edith Head; "New Hope for Your Hair" by Irwin Lubow, M.D.; "How to Write Letters for All Occasions" by Sheff and Ingalls. There are several different cookbooks, books on sewing, camping, picnicking and gardening, as well as material on child care, a medical home adviser, and a book on "All the Women of the Bible," by Edith Deen. Also new are many books given to the library by Lamont persons. There are three Gene Stratton Porter books, "At the Foot of the Rainbow," "A Girl of the Lumberlost," and "Harvester." Others are "Rainbow Trail" by Zane Grey; "Cannary Row," by Steinbeck, "Swiss Family Robinson," "Gone with the Wind," and "To Kill a Mockingbird." These are only a few of the many worthwhile books which have been given to the library. Mrs. Merle Elliott is the librarian. Roger Homewood, former Lamont resident and now of Oelwein, lost part of his home in the tornado.
